The screenshot shows the homepage of Brill Online Books and Journals. At the top left is the Brill logo and the tagline "Over three centuries of scholarly publishing". The main header features a search bar with a dropdown menu set to "All Content" and a "Search" button. Below the search bar is a navigation menu with tabs for Home, E-Books, Journals, All titles (A-Z), Subjects, Collections, and Imprints. The "Subjects" tab is selected, displaying a list of subject categories on the left and a central banner for "Brill Online Books and Journals" with a description of its extensive collection. A "Sign-in" form is visible on the right side of the page.

The screenshot shows the search results page for "American Studies". The page is titled "Browse by Subject: American Studies" and displays 5 results. The results are listed with their titles, authors, and publication years. The first result is "Ceramics and the Spanish Conquest" by Gilda Hernández Sánchez, published in 2011. The second is "Cultural Tourism in Latin America" by E.H.P. Frankema, published in 2009. The third is "Has Latin America Always Been Unequal?" by E.H.P. Frankema, published in 2009. The fourth is "Power in Powerlessness" by Martin Lindhardt. The page also includes a "Sign-in" form, a "Register" button, and a "Tools" section with options for "Printable version" and "Create email alert".

Schenker, Adrian

Polyglot Bibles

are synoptic presentations of multiple Bible texts in at least three languages – in the narrower sense, the original text and the oldest translations: Septuagint (Bible translations: I, 1.a), targums (Bible translations: I, 4), Peshitta, and Vulgate (Bible translations: I, 2.c).
